GEORGE COOPER in the Modern Woodman pens the following ode entitled "October's Party," which is appropos of the season...

October gave a party:
The leaves of hundreds came—
The Chestnuts, Oaks and Maples,
And leaves of every name.
The Sunshine spread a carpet,
And everything was grand.
Miss Weather led the dancing,
Professor Wind the band.

The Chestnuts came in yellow,
The Oaks in crimson dressed;
The lovely Misses Maple
In scarlet looked their best;
All balanced to their partners,
And gaily fluttered by;
The sight was like a rainbow
New fallen from the sky.

Then, in the rustic hollow,
At hide-and-seek they played.
The party closed at sundown,
And everybody stayed.
Professor Wind played louder;
They flew along the ground—
And then the party ended
In jolly "heads around."

OVER AT ANSON the other day, comes an unconfirmed story to The Herald, a fellow was charged in court for burglarizing a dress shop.

"What I don't understand," said the judge, "is why you broke into that dress shop three times in one night. What did you steal?"

"Just a dress for my wife, your honor," replied the defendant, but she made me change it twice."

TESTIFYING in court the other day over at Anson, the plaintiff who was suing the railroad braced himself stiffly in the witness box as the defense counsel started cross examination.

"You say you were hurt in the accident?" the attorney asked.

"That's right," the witness replied.

"Then, at the time of the accident, when you were asked if you were injured," pursued the attorney, "why did you say that you weren't?"

The witness shuffled his feet. "It's like this," he said. "Me and my horse and wagon, we didn't see no train coming so we started across the tracks. Next thing you know there's this train and we're knocked into the ditch. You never saw such a mess. I'm flat on my back with my feet up in the air, my horse is the same way, and the wagon is upside down."

Interrupted the lawyer: "But when the engineer asked you how you were, you said 'okay.'"

"First things first," replied the witness. "The engineer comes over and sees the horse's leg is broken, so he goes and gets a gun and shoots the horse. And then he comes over to me, gun in hand, and asks if I'm hurt. Sure, I told him I was okay."

THE TRAFFIC COP was a little mispuit the other day when he faced the motorist whom he had arrested on the Hamlin-Aspermont highway.

Taking out his notebook and a pencil, he asked: "What's your name?"

The speeding motorist replied: "Aloysius Alaslat Chysianczjathas."

After sputtering a little, the traffic policeman started putting away his traffic ticket book and said: "Don't let me catch you speeding again."

THE LITTLE Hamlin girl evidently had become bored by her enforced practices and urgings by doting parents to become a talented musician.

The teacher was trying to make Elsie understand subtraction and she said: "You have 10 fingers; now supposing there were three missing—what would you have then?"

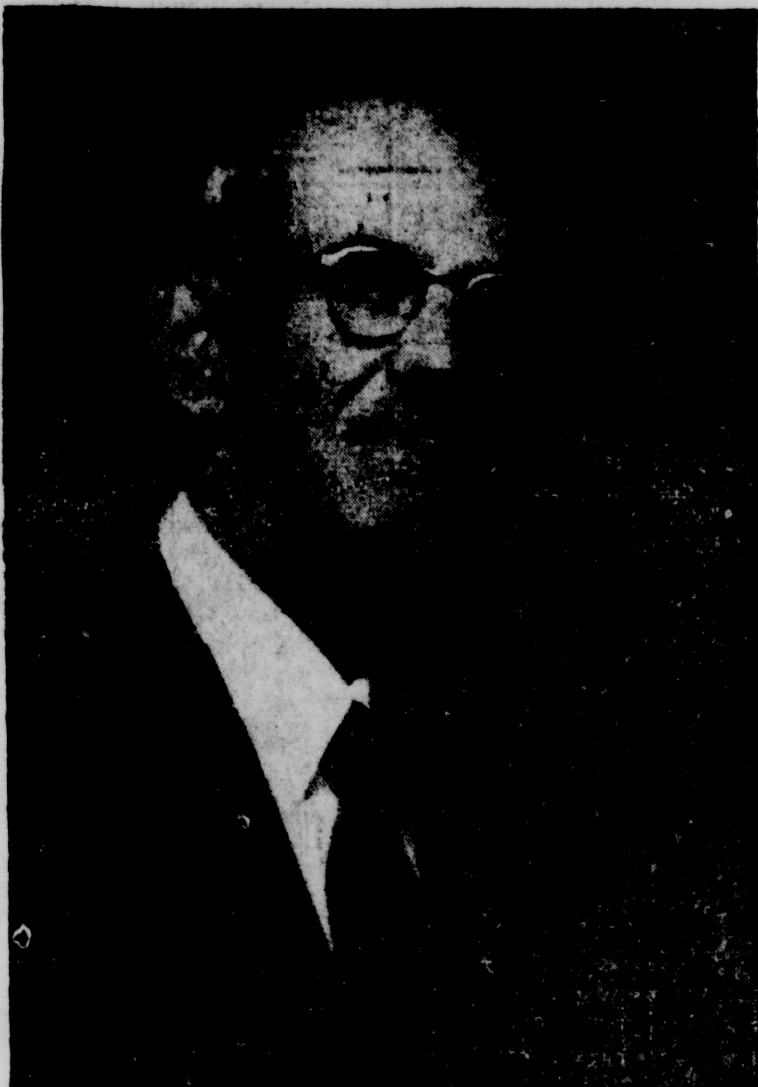

"No music lessons," said Elsie promptly.

MODERN SONGS are a far cry from most of those on which we grew up. In other days they were soft and swiny, soothing and liting, romantic and even made sense.

Another person who looks upon the modern jazzy, loud and lusty, senseless bang and slam referred to as music nowadays his thoughts in rhyme like this...

The old time songs were wonderful.

You really couldn't beat them. That's why it makes me feel so bad. Today when folks mistreat them.

DR. RALPH JOHNSON, outstanding evangelist and musician from Jackson, Mississippi, will be lectured in a series of evangelistic services beginning Sunday at the Faith Methodist Church. He will be assisted by Roberta Hall, talented musician, who will also work with the young people. Services are scheduled at 6:30 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. and will continue through Sunday, October 19.

Bids Called For on New Mail Routing

Call for bids for carrying the mail from Abilene to towns and cities along the route of the Santa Fe "doodle-bug" train that has been carrying mail for many years this week portends the abandonment by the post office department of the Santa Fe line.

Post office and railroad officials have been talking about discontinuing the train for several months. The railroad made application for hearing on the discontinuance to the Texas Railroad Commission several weeks ago, but the hearing has not been held.

The train, which has been operating for years from San Angelo into Kansas, already has been abandoned from San Angelo to Sweetwater and in Kansas and Oklahoma.

Projected route of the star mail route is to leave Abilene at 2:00 a. m. (or as late as 6:00 a. m. in case of late trains from the east) going by way of Stamford, Sagerton, Old Glory, Rule, Rochester, O'Brien, Knox City, Benjamin, Truscott and Crowell to Quanah, a total of 148.10 miles, and return. On Sunday the routes will go only to Truscott.

Call for bids asks for tentative contracts to be dated November 1. Hamlin at present has a star route to Anson. Under the new arrangement mail for Hamlin will probably be picked up at Stamford, according to Perry Sparks, Hamlin postmaster.

Dr. Ralph Johnson To Lead in Faith Methodist Revival

Dr. Ralph Johnson, outstanding evangelist and musician of Jackson, Tennessee, will be in charge of a series of services beginning Sunday at the Faith Methodist Church. Roberta Hall, accomplished musician, will assist with the musical program and work with young people during the crusade. The team will bring special musical instruments, including an electronic organ and a xylophone, to be used during the services.

Services are scheduled at 6:30 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. during the eight-day evangelistic effort, according to Rev. Gene Moore, pastor of the church. The meeting will continue through October 19. Juniors will meet each afternoon for special services, and the young people will have a service at 6:30 each evening. The public is invited to attend all the services.

Beginning at 6:00 o'clock each morning, breakfast rolls and coffee will be served to attendants by members of the Men's Bible Class, Rev. Moore announces.

Superintendent Cook commended the 10 drivers and said, "A job well done."

Letters who received certificates were B. V. Newberry, Marvin Carlton, Mack Perdue, M. S. Johnson, Wayne Bodnett, E. S. Morgan, W. S. Carter, Gus Young, Melvin Mack and Harry Martin.

Nazarene People Slated to Attend Pilot Point Meet

Members and officials of the Hamlin Church of the Nazarene are making plans to attend the congregation's golden anniversary year climax event that will take place at Pilot Point on Monday, October 13, according to Rev. R. T. Jarrell, pastor.

On that afternoon, before church and state dignitaries, a bronze and granite marker will be unveiled at the place where the church of the Nazarene was founded in 1908. Thousands are expected, about tripling the usual population of the Denton County village. The congregation of the Hamlin Nazarene Church will hear these plans outlined by the pastor. He will be chairman on local arrangements.

Pilot Point is located about 60 miles north of Dallas and Fort Worth in North Central Texas. Hon. Price Daniel, governor of Texas, is scheduled to bring a greeting on the program, which will receive national coverage by press, radio and TV.

Dr. Hardy C. Powers of Dallas, senior general superintendent of the Church of the Nazarene, will make the principal address.

Aspermont Truck Driver Dies Here After Car Accident

Joe Wayne Burleson, 19-year-old Aspermont truck driver, died early Saturday morning in Hamlin Memorial Hospital of injuries sustained when the pick-up truck in which he was a passenger overturned about 2:30 a. m. Saturday at Aspermont.

Paul Brookman, 17, of Aspermont, driver of the 1957 Ford pick-up truck, was in fair condition at Hardrick Memorial Hospital at Abilene first of the week. He suffered a broken back.

Two other passengers in the truck, Harold Boatman, about 25, of Peacock, and Corky Childress, about 28, of Peacock, were not injured seriously.

Sheriff Charles L. Gibson of Aspermont said Burleson and Brookman were thrown from the pick-up when it overturned. He said the pick-up, apparently skidded on gravel as it turned the corner on a gravel street.

Funeral for Burleson was held Sunday at the First Baptist Church in Rochester. Rev. Mark Hardis, pastor of the First Baptist Church in O'Brien, officiated. Burial was in Rochester Cemetery under direction of Mansell-Smith Funeral Home of Rochester.

Survivors are his parents, two sisters, and his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Jacobs of Rochester.

Damp Weather Damages Quality And Lint Yields

Cotton was moving to the gins in the Hamlin territory at an increased tempo this week with the advent of some needed warmer and dryer days, following several weeks of misty, rainy and cool days, to give the farmers of the region a chance to get into the cotton fields in real earnest.

The inclement weather of the past several weeks had not only practically brought to a standstill the cotton harvest, but had slowed ripening of the cotton bolls and done material damage to the cotton on the stalks that was ready for harvest. The lint was stained by prolonged wet weather, hurting the looks of the staple and otherwise deteriorating the crop to the amount of thousands of dollars.

Three weeks ago County Agent Kirby Clayton had estimated that the county would harvest more than 35,000 bales. He still is contending the crop will near that figure, although the value of the crop will be down much from early estimates. He points out that most of the cotton in the county is in better shape than in the immediate Hamlin territory, where mid-summer rains were few and inadequate.

Much of the cotton crop in the region will be defoliated and gathered by mechanical pickers and strippers inasmuch as harvest has been delayed.

Cleo Scott, Former Minister, to Lead In Revival Series

Cleo Scott of Houston, former minister of the Hamlin Church of Christ, is scheduled to lead in a series of fall gospel services at the local church from Sunday, October 19, through Sunday, October 26, it is announced this week by Austin Siburt, minister of the local congregation.

Services are slated to be held each day at 3:00 and 7:30 p. m. Scott, a native of Marshall, was superintendent of the schools at Haskell when he was invited to preach at the local church in 1947. He remained as minister here for about two years. Going from the Hamlin church to Conroe, he went on to Houston, where he has been for three years.

Rodney Spaulding, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Spaulding of Hamlin, and a Bible major in Abilene Christian College, will direct the singing for the series of meetings. Further particulars about the services will be carried in next week's issue of The Herald.

People who talk about religion all the time often fail to understand its true meaning.

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Minton of Slaton are announcing the birth of a daughter on September 30. The little lady, who has been dubbed Rosa Jo, weighed six pounds 10 ounces at birth. Young Minton is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Minton of Hamlin.

Two new citizens were recorded at the Hamlin Memorial Hospital since last week's report in The Herald. A boy and a girl, they were:

A girl for Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gilbert arrived September 29. The little miss tipped the scales at eight pounds 13 ounces. She took the name of Gracie Mae.

A boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. Richard L. Herring of Stamford September 30. After having his weight checked at seven pounds three ounces, he was assigned the moniker John Allen.

BUSINESS IMPROVEMENT SEEN IN U. S. FUTURE

"Rolling readjustment," "bottoming out," "sideways movement"—expressions like these have been frequently in the news this year. Sometimes contradictory, often confusing, they reflect the complicated movements of the nation's economy.

Fortunately, signs of business improvement have become more numerous in the last few months. It may still be too early to say that our economic machine is shifting into high gear. But there are solid reasons for believing that we are moving forward again.

When we look a little way down the road, moreover, the prospect is brighter than any we have yet seen. Let's look, for example, at 1965, the year when children now in the first grade will be entering high school. Reliable estimates show that by that time, there will be 18,000,000 more people living in this country than there are today.

Now that fact alone may not seem like a reason for throwing our hats in the air. After all, China and India have much higher populations than ours. But such countries have neither the competitive economic system nor the resultant productive capacity that we do. Here, we have solved the age-old problem of how to feed millions of mouths—and feed them well. To our economy, an increase in population is not an added burden. It means an increase in demand—an opportunity to use our skills and our industrial potential to create more jobs and produce more goods.

These things will not, of course, happen by themselves. Somebody has to plan for them, and prepare for them, and find the capital to make them come about. For example, one industry alone, the oil industry, will have to make capital expenditures of many billions of dollars to meet the needs of our growing country.

From October 12 to 18, when that industry will be celebrating its annual Oil Progress Week, oil company people will be calling our attention to the vast opportunities that lie down the road. With the theme "Today—Oil Builds for Your Tomorrow," they will be telling us about the job that their industry must do to enable the nation to make the most of future opportunities. It's an inspiring and encouraging story to be telling right now. We'll be listening to it with a great deal of interest in the Hamlin community, which owes much of its fine economy to the oil industry.

The Free Man

A man's master is he who is capable of giving or taking away whatever that man wants or avoids. The truly free man must, therefore, desire nothing which depends upon the whim or caprices of others, but must necessarily stand on his own two feet. Otherwise, he is not completely free.

When you take for your own only that which is your own, and consider what belongs to others as not yours, then nobody can ever enslave your spirit or restrict your thoughts. You will accept others for what they are, and they will accept you for what you are—a free man.

It is not practical in society to subscribe to this principle in every detail, but if you will face your future with the thought that you will observe this rule to the greatest possible degree, you will be able to live independently, humanely and serenely.—Ascribed to Epictetus, about 100 A. D.

Admitting Our Errors

How hard it is to confess that we have spoken without thinking, that we have talked nonsense. How many a man says a thing in haste and heat, without fully understanding or half meaning it, and then, because he has said it, holds fast to it and tries to defend it as if it were true!

How much wiser, how much more admirable and attractive it is when a man has the grace to perceive and acknowledge his mistakes! It gives us assurance that he is capable of learning, of growing, of improving, so that his future will be better than his past.—Henry Van Dyke.

Nuggets of Thought

If you lend a friend five dollars and never see him again, it's worth it.—Fred Espinosa.

Instead of loving your enemies, treat your friends a little better.—Ed Howe.

The comfort of having a friend may be taken away, but not that of having had one.—Seneca.

Who seeks a friend without a fault remains without one.—Turkish Proverb.

It is noble to have a friend, but nobler still to be one.—Richard Wagner.

Our friends see the best in us, and by that very fact call forth the best from us.—Black.

Every man should keep a fair sized cemetery in which to bury the faults of his friends.—Henry Ward Beecher.

The degree of vision that dwells in a man is a correct measure of the man.—Thomas Car-

Profiting by Mistakes

I don't believe anyone can enjoy living in this world unless he can accept its imperfection. He must know and admit that he is imperfect, that all other mortals are imperfect, that it is childish to allow these imperfections to destroy all his hope and all his desire to live.

Nature is older than man, and she is still far from perfect. Her summers do not always start promptly on June 21. Her bugs and beetles and other insects often go beyond her obvious intentions, devouring the leaves and buds with which she has adorned her countryside. After the land has remained too dry for too long she sends relieving rains. But frequently they come in torrents so violent that they do more harm than good. Over the years, however, nature keeps going on in her imperfect way and the result, in spite of the many mistakes, is a continuing miracle.

It would be folly for an individual to seek to do better than go on in his own imperfect way, making his mistakes, and riding out the rough and bewildering, exciting and beautiful storm of life until the day he dies.—Oscar Hammerstein II.

Editorial of the Week

WHEN AMERICA GREW

Governments at every level this year will take 30 per cent of the national income—the federal government alone collecting nearly $80,000,000,000 in taxes.

There's an interesting historical parallel. In 1800, right after adoption of the U. S. constitution, governments at every level took 10 per cent of the national income in taxes.

In 1925, a century and a quarter later, government consumed only eight per cent of the national income. In that 125 years, America made its greatest gains in history. National wealth jumped from $2,500,000,000 to over $307,000,000,000; population went up from 5,500,000 to 116,000,000; output per worker increased from 10 cents to $1.30 an hour in value.

All those gains were made while governments actually reduced from 10 to eight per cent the amount of taxes as related to national income.

In those 125 years it was proved that Washington did not have to prime the pump to assure jobs and family incomes. Business and industry were left alone to expand and invest in the future, free of unnecessary regulation.

To repeat—taxes today are 30 per cent of the national income, as compared with eight to 10 when this country made its phenomenal

Cattle Prices Uneven, But New Rises Registered in Hog Markets for Week

Cattle prices were uneven, hogs showed the first strength in more than a week, and sheep and goats were steady at Fort Worth Monday, declares Td. Gouldy, special market reporter for The Herald. In his weekly market summary, The summary continues:

Offerings of cattle and calves were nearly 10,000 below a week earlier around the major market circle. Hogs at 12 major markets were 16,000 below a week earlier. Sheep numbers were up 2,500 around the circuit.

Cattle and calves were slow. The receipts included a big percentage of mixed grade and classes and one factor in the slow movement early in the day was the extensive sorting that was necessary.

Fed heaves were scarce and about steady. Cows faced lower offers from slaughter interests from the opening song and averaged 25 to mostly 50 cents lower by the time a clearance was completed. Bulls were steady.

Slaughter classes ruled steady.

Stocker and feeder classes were unevenly fully steady to somewhat lower. There was very strong demand from farmers of the area on types suitable for winter pasture operations, but buyers with Northern connections were talking lower prices following the $1 lower close in the North late last week. High grade stockers were relatively scarce.

Good and choice slaughter yearlings and steers cashed at $24 to $28, the higher figure for some baby beef type heavy calves of light yearling weights. Medium and lower grades sold from $23.50 down.

Fat cows sold mostly from $18.50 to $22, and canners and cutters drew $14 to $19. Bulls sold from $18 to $22.75.

Good and choice slaughter calves sold mostly from $24 to $28, with a few heavies higher. Cull, common and medium calves sold from $16 to $24.

Good to choice stocker calves cashed at $29 to $33, and heifer calves ranged from $30 downward. Stocker steer yearlings sold from $31.50 downward, with heavier yearlings $27.50 downward. Stocker cows sold from $18 to $21.50. Some weighty feeder steers sold from $22 to $25.50.

Last week hog prices took a drubbing all over the country, and as they dropped from the $22 range to the $20 range, they lost a total of $2 to $2.50 in just three days of last week. However, at Fort Worth Monday the trend was up for the first time in more than a week.

Butcher hogs were 50 cents higher, and packing sows were 50 cents or more higher Monday. Choice butcher hogs cashed at $20 to $20.25. Medium to good butcher hogs sold at $18.50 to $19.85. Sows were reported from $18 to $19.50. Boars drew $8 to $9. Stags cashed at $12 to $15.

Sheep and lambs were steady at Fort Worth Monday. Medium to good slaughter lambs sold from $20 to $22, some shorn lambs with No. 1 pelt and some woolled lambs at the top of $22. Good slaughter yearling wethers cashed at $18 to $20. Slaughter ewes sold from $7.50 to $8. A few nanny goats sold at $7.50. Stocker and feeder lambs cashed at $18 to $21.75.

Texas is regarded as one of the most fertile fields in America for archeological research.

Cotton Defoliation Pays Dividends in West Texas Area

Cotton defoliation has paid big dividends to West Texas farmers in the past few years, according to County Agent Kirby Clayton. Clayton reports that it cost about a bale to hand pull a bale of cotton, whereas the same bale of cotton machine stripped for only a bale and the grade is the same in either case.

In this area Clayton recommends two to three quarts of pentachlorophenol mixed with four to one-half gallons of diesel fuel or kerosene per acre on cotton 24 inches tall or smaller, using three to five X-2 nozzles per row. On larger cotton, 24 inches tall or larger, Clayton recommends two to three quarts of pentachlorophenol mixed with seven gallons of diesel or kerosene per acre, using five T-jet X2 nozzles per row. Tractors should run at four miles an hour with 40 pounds of pressure for best results.

Pentachlorophenol is recommended for use only when cotton is 60 per cent open and all remaining bolls are mature.

The Texas A. & M. Bulletin on cotton defoliation is now available in the county agent's office for those who call for it.

WE KNEW HIM WHEN

An ambitious young garage owner was determined to become a success and worked all kinds of schemes. On reaching the age of 43 he suddenly died. When he reached the gates of heaven, there was St. Peter to conduct the necessary entrance formalities.

When the garage man had filled in the forms, St. Peter commented on his age and remarked it was unusual to call someone so young. He checked the files and then turned to the man:

"I'm afraid you're wrong—you are much older, and according to the working hours you charged your customers you're at least 127."

Last Special Sale For Season Slated Soon at Fort Worth

Final special show and sale of stocker and feeder calves and yearlings at the Fort Worth stockyards takes place Thursday and Friday, October 9 and 10, points out Ted Gouldy, special market reporter for The Herald. He continues: It will be an all-breed affair each day. Early entries passed the 1,000 mark last week, indicating a good offering of cattle would be on hand for the premiums and top sale prices.

The sale is sponsored by the Fort Worth Market Institute, and Manager Ted Gouldy announced Monday that inquiry for stockers and feeders at the market continues of almost unprecedented proportions. "Some step-up in Northern demand was reported at Corn Belt terminals late last week," Gouldy reported, "but with good winter grazing and big feed supplies, the Southwestern demand continues broad at strong prices. In the trade Monday the scores of farmers and ranchers in the alleys seeking stockers enabled salesmen to sell cattle at strong prices regardless of Northern views as to the values of replacement calves or yearlings."

Special prizes will be awarded each day to consignors whose cattle place as high as fifth in the judging. Judging starts at 7:00 a. m. and selling at 9:00 a. m. each day.

The special Thursday-Friday double-header sales were originated by the Market Institute four years ago and have been hailed by cattle producers as a new method of getting buyers and sellers together to the mutual advantage of both.

Certified Seed Worth Extra Cost, Advises Planting Specialist

If you buy small grain seed, don't let the small extra cost stop you from buying certified seed, advises County Agent Kirby Clayton.

Lee Coffey, in charge of the foundation seed program at Texas A. & M. College, says you can save your own planting seed of good varieties; however, there is always the danger of mechanical mixing in the combine or drill. So the rule Coffey suggests to follow is: When you buy small grain seed buy certified seed.

That small extra cost is good insurance of the origin of the seed that they have been inspected by the State Department of Agriculture and that they are the variety you want. Another advantage, certified seed must come up to high germination standards as well as be free of weeds and disease. So examine the tag on the seed you buy, and if you buy seed, buy certified seed.

Social Security Office Moved to New Site At Abilene This Week

Abilene office of the Social Security Administration is now in its new home, 203 Fanning at North Second Street, according to a report from R. R. Tuley Jr., district manager.

The new location will provide more ample parking facilities for office callers, and will also afford more room inside for reception and interviews with claims representatives than was possible before at the old location.

Persons planning to call at the Abilene office of the Social Security Administration are urged to take note of the new address above to save the inconvenience of going first to the wrong place. The mailing address, changed a few weeks ago, remains Box 5168.

Demonstration Club Women Briefed on "Care of Clothing"

"Care of Clothing" was the demonstration conducted by Mary Y. Newberry, home demonstration agent, in her office for clothing leaders from the Jones County Home Demonstration Clubs. Sixteen attended.

Purpose of the meeting was to discuss the importance of proper care of clothing and to demonstrate proper equipment for care of clothing.

The agent told the women: "Foremost in the work and planning it takes to be well dressed is the care given clothing. Proper care will improve the appearance of garments and increase their wearing qualities. For intelligent care of fabrics and clothing, certain things must be done daily, others occasionally, and still others at the change of seasons."

Wrapping clothes hands with tissue paper and crushed newspaper for skulder size and using tissue paper under the veil of a hat to preserve the shape of the veil, were among some of the ways the agent demonstrated in caring for clothes.

Beta Theta Chapter Has Model Meeting in Max Murrell Home

Members of the Beta Theta chapter of Beta Sigma Phi met last Wednesday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Max Murrell for their model meeting.

Mrs. Wilson Brannon conducted an informative program entitled "Introductions and Invitations," which was helpful to the group. Mrs. Billy Joe Wilson, presided over a short business session, at which time she urged all members to go by and see the Beta Theta's homecoming display in the window of Howard City Drug.

Pie and coffee were served by the hostess to the following members: Mmes. Billy Joe Wilson, H. L. Mehaffey, Neil Laminack, L. C. Bonds, Guy Weaver, Jimmy Vaughn, Wilson Brannon, D. C. Andrews and Mac Fullerton.

The agent reminded the women that the care given to clothing is the thing which makes us well dressed and helps us make a good appearance.

The leaders attending the meeting will give the program back to their own clubs.

Those attending were Mmes. Herman Steel, C. H. Watts, Jennings Winter, Maxey Harvey, J. C. Brown, Paul Bradley, Dale, Laine, E. G. Young, Alma Foster, Gayle Reize, J. W. Oament, I. B. Ray, Toff Herndon and Carroll White.

Mrs. Jack Bessire Gets Mention in Contest

Mrs. Jack Bessire, the former Donna Jean Kidd, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie H. Kidd of Hamlin, and a graduate of Hamlin High School, has been awarded an honorable mention in a national contest conducted by Reed & Barton, America's oldest major silversmiths, for high school senior girls all over the country, in which over 23,000 girls participated.

In a drawing held recently in New York, her entry was selected to receive a "spoon pin" of her choice from her registered jeweler, McMahon Jewelry Company of Hamlin.

Boy Scout Work Is Worthy

The annual financial drive for the Boy Scout work in the Hamlin community is underway this week under the direction of Weldon Johnson and B. V. Newberry. Southwestern Bell Telephone Company, as in the years past, is happy to have a part in this worthy project. We bespeak the hearty cooperation of the people of the community in this campaign to raise funds to carry on the work during the coming year.

There is no way to estimate the value of this character building and citizenship teaching work among the boys of our land. Hamlin area boys have been active in Cub Scout, Boy Scout and Explorer Scout work, around 100 boys of the area now being enrolled in the three Scout branches.

The Child Will Be Frank

Louise Proctor's twenty-fifth service anniversary was celebrated with a punch and cake party recently. Among those who attended was Pam Richey, the six-year-old daughter of Dorothy Richey, one of our former Hamlin operators. Before the cake was served, I noticed little Pam staring very hard at the punch bowl, which was filled with foamy raspberry punch. Finally she couldn't hold her question any longer, and she looked at Jo Riddle, combination clerk, and asked, "Jo, are we going to have to drink that bubble bath?"

Luxurious—But Not a Luxury

Got a telephone for your bedroom, yet? Nothing tops a bedroom telephone for real luxury living. When I'm home using ours, I like to stretch out on the bed with the phone cradled between my shoulder and my ear. I can relax and really talk that way.

There are plenty of good, practical reasons for having a bedroom phone, too. Privacy, for example. And women often say how reassuring it is to have a phone at their bedside when they're alone in the house at night. It's much nicer to be able to "reach" to answer instead of having to dash to another room.

Here in Hamlin, a bedroom extension costs only $1.00 a month plus installation. And for a one-time charge of only $10 you can have your choice of any of the nine beautiful color telephones. They're especially smart for bedrooms.

Easy Way to Keep in Touch

I guess at one time or another, we all remember—out of a clear sky—someone we haven't thought of in a long time. "Whatever happened to George?" we say. Or to Ruth, or the Browns, or the Martin family. Usually it's someone we really mean to keep in touch with—like the couple who used to live next door, or old friends in far-away places. But with so much on our minds and so much to do, the months fly by and we never get around to it.

The quick, easy way to make up for lost time is, of course, to use your telephone.

A long distance phone call is the personal, thoughtful way of keeping in touch with those you care about. Try a call tonight, and you'll see what I mean.

Call by number. It's twice as fast.

Gridders Go to Childress for Last Non-Conference Game

Pied Pipers Hope To Fatten Record In First Meeting

Hamlin High School footballers will make their longest trek of the season for a game tomorrow (Friday) when they go to Childress to meet the Bobcats on their own gridiron. Game time is 8:00 o'clock.

Playing Childress for the first time in many years, the Pied Pipers are hoped to take the tilt in view of the Bobcats' performance so far. Childress has lost four of their five games this season. Paduech bounced the Bobcats 27 to 0 in the first game. Childress hoped Panhandle 14 to 12, then lost three in a row—losing to Vernon 40 to 0, to Burkburnett 52 to 22, and to Seymour 43 to 18.

With a three won, two lost record so far, the Pied Pipers hope to improve their percentage before getting down to cases with four conference games after the Childress bout.

Besides the team and a host of home-town fans, Hamlin will take the 60-piece Pied Piper Band and the 70-girl Pep Squad to the Childress fracas, school authorities announced this week.

Tickets Available for Friday Childress Tilt

Tickets for Friday night's football game at Childress between the Childress Bobcats and the Hamlin Pied Pipers are available at the Hamlin school office, school officials announce.

Tickets are $1 for adults and 50 cents for students. Tickets will be 25 cents higher at the gate. Besides the team, all members of the Pied Piper Band and the girls' Pep Squad will be making the trip to Childress school officials announce.

The Herald has carbon paper, may be secured at the school at a reduction in price, school officials point out.

Pied Pipers Drop Homecoming Tilt Winters by 8 to 0

Capitalizing on chances for a quick score on the first kick-off in last Friday night's non-conference football game against the Hamlin Pied Pipers, the Winters gridders went on to score early in the period and mark up an 8 to 0 victory over the locals before a giant homecoming crowd at the Hamlin stadium.

The victory caused the locals' season record to drop to three wins and two losses. It was the Blizzards' second win out of four games played so far.

Winters took the opening kick-off and marched behind Left Half Jimmy Largent and Fullback Charles Curry to the one-yard spot, where Jerry Dunnam carried over. Joel Butts ran over the two extra points.

Hamlin drove inside the Winters 20-yard stripe only once during the game. A Winters touchdown was called back late in the fourth quarter.

The game was a hard fought one, Winters racking up 203 yards to 196 yards for the Pied Pipers. However, the Blizzards made 15 first downs to only five for the local crew.

The Pied Pipers had two first string players out of the tilt because of injuries and illness, and two others played despite their injuries.

Going Gets Rough for District 6-AA Teams, But Gridders Hold Percentage

The going seems to be getting harder for teams of the District 6-AA football loop. Last weekend, as the squads engaged in their fifth week of non-conference play, the teams won two, tied one and lost two games to merely hold their own in the percentage column for the year.

Stamford's Bulldogs continued their display of strength by downing the strong unbeaten Brady Bulldogs 14 to 6; Seymour rolled up Childress 43 to 18; Haskell tied a strong Coleman crew 14 to 14; Anson lost to the Class A Merkel Badgers 28 to 26; and Hamlin dropped its homecoming tilt to the Winters Blizzards 8 to 0.

Haskell High School's Indians, beaten once this season so far, had a tough session with the District 6-AA Coleman squad. Although the Indians looked better statistically, the score ended in a 14 to 14 tie. Haskell made 17 first downs to 11 for Coleman, and ran up 193 yards rushing to 168 for the Coleman aggregation. However, Coleman had the edge in the passing department, making 95 yards on four of nine tosses while Haskell made 66 yards by completing 8 of 21 passes. Both teams scored in the last quarter. Haskell led at the half 8 to 6.

Seymour's Panthers, last year's district champions, showed their teeth after their previous week's 25 to 6 loss to Electra by sweeping the Childress Bobcats off their feet 43 to 18 Friday night on the Seymour griddle. Billy Carlock scored three Seymour touchdowns on runs of four, 30 and six yards; Travis Clark passed to Jerry Underwood for 21 yards and a score and ran another over from the 15; and Eldon Welch went seven yards for a marker. Welch also kicked three extra points, and Carlock ran over for two. Ray Kelly, Childress quarterback, went five, eight and seven yards for the losers' touchdowns. Tries for the extra points failed.

Stamford's Bulldogs, hoped to take the district title this season, continued to prove contentions by trouncing a strong Brady Bulldog crew 14 to 6 in a melee played at Stamford. Guard Ray Sconce of Stamford took a blocked punt in the first quarter and raced 30 yards for a touchdown. The boys went 70 yards on another series of plays for the second marker in the third period. Quarterback Fred Uphaw tossing to Duane Lindsey and 12 yards for the marker. In the second quarter Royce Blackburn went across for the Brady touchdown. Stamford made 15 first downs to seven for Brady, and rolled up 176 yards rushing to 57 for the Brady squad.

Capitalizing on the first quarter kick-off, the Winters Blizzards took an 8 to 0 decision over the Hamlin Pied Pipers before a big homecoming crowd of exes. Left Halfback Jimmy Largent and Fullback Charles Curry led the drive downfield, and Jerry Dunnam put the oval over the goal line from the one-yard spot. Joel Butts ran over the extra points. Playing was about even in the tilt, but

Rodents Continue to Plague Community

Rats and mice continue to be around in big numbers, according to residents of the Hamlin community. In fact, the infestation seems to be pretty universal all over the Southwest.

Thousands of the rats and mice have been poisoned and trapped by area residents—but still they show up.

The Hamlin Board of Community Development office still has a supply of the poisoned bait that is being given to residents of the territory free.

MATTER OF RESPECT

The grandfather of the chief had the misfortune to be eaten by a warrior from a neighboring tribe. In due time the warrior was captured and brought before the chief. The medicine man suggested that the cannibal be executed.

"No," said the chief. "Should I disturb my grandfather's grave?"

Winters made 15 first downs to five for the Pipers.

Anson Tigers and the Merkel Class A Badgers engaged in a hard fought battle Friday night on the Merkel grounds which the Badgers took 28 to 26. Hamlin, incidentally, earlier in the season had clipped Merkel 24 to 14, giving the dopsters a comparison of the Anson and Hamlin crews. The Merkel squad rolled up 244 yards on the ground to only 54 yards for the Tigers, and amassed 18 first downs to Anson's eight. Scoring for Merkel were Joe Noll, Jerry McLeod, Manley Denton and Tokyo Moreno. Tallying for the Anson gang were Bennie Cox, Ronnie Ryan and Pat Patterson.

Grid Game Receipts At Schools Hit $2,219

Receipts from football games played at Hamlin this season have been good, a tabulation of the records this week by school officials reveals.

By games the receipts and Hamlin's part have been as follows: Eastland $781, Hamlin's part $337; Spur $710, Hamlin's part $303.63; Merkel $840.50, Hamlin's part $363.43; Rotan $788, Hamlin's part $337.50; Winters $1,063.50, Hamlin's part $476.30; reserved seat $3.85, $182; B team receipts, $101.25; grade school receipts, $105. Total, receipts by the Hamlin athletic department have been $2,219.45.

Seventh Graders to Play Two with Anson

Seventh grade gridders from Hamlin Junior High School will play the Anson seventh graders two games, according to Harry Martin, Hamlin coach. The games will be played on Saturday morning at 9:00 o'clock.

The first game will be played at Anson next Saturday, October 11, and the game at Hamlin will be played on November 1.

Anson Juniors Beat Mighty Mice 18 to 6 In Tuesday Night Tilt

Anson Junior High School Cubs used a fine passing combination from Quarterback John Sanders to Haliback Jerry Pearce for two first period touchdowns and set up a third touchdown to take a half-time 18 to 0 lead in their tilt last Tuesday night with the Hamlin Mighty Mice. The final score was 18 to 6.

Hamlin's gridders took the second half kick-off and marched for their only touchdown. Moving the ball were Mike Martin, Dan Newberry, Larry Blackwell, Van Newberry, Raymond Renfro and Anthony Woolf. The Hamlin boys shook loose for some nice gains in the last quarter, but were stopped by two clipping penalties. O. H. Weaver played a good game at tackle while Floyd Woolf did a good job at end.

Hamlin's touchdown was scored by Mike Martin on a short plunge over guard.

Mexican Baptist Church Observes Birthday Sunday

Mexican Baptist Mission of the Baptist Church Sunday afternoon opened its doors to the church in North Hamlin for the commemoration of the anniversary of the establishment of the church. Scores of people visited the church and served refreshments by members of the congregation and the pastor, Rev. Rictor Ortiz.

The mission was established in October, 1850, as a mission of the First Baptist Church during the ministry of Rev. A. R. Posey. Rev. Ortiz, then a student at Hardin-Simmons University at Abilene, was the first pastor. In 1953 he went to the Golden Gate Seminary in California, returning in 1954.

Starting with a Sunday School attendance of three, the mission now has around 75 each Sunday and has a membership of about 50. Elizio Martinez is Training Union director; Manuela Ortiz is Woman's Missionary Society president; Manuel Perez is Sunday School superintendent; and Mrs. Joe Simpson is Sunday School secretary.

Owning its own building, the church now has $1,400 in the bank, Rev. Ortiz reports.

bed in Abilene, the grand old school man heard indirectly of the dedication through a friend, Tate May, who carried a special plaque to his bed Saturday morning. The dedication stated:

"We, the officers and members of the Ex-Students Association, do hereby dedicate this, the 1958 homecoming to C. G. Green, a beloved superintendent of Hamlin schools from 1924 to 1939.

"We honor Mr. Green in this small way and pay our respects to him for the many years of diligent service he gave to those of us who did then and do now enjoy the fruits of his labor. To the man who stood for good living, good learning and who expected the best from each pupil and

Scores of Hamlin High School ex-students used the downtown headquarters for last week-end's homecoming sponsored by the Hamlin Business and Professional Woman's Club.

Primitive Baptists Set Services at Dovie

Services are scheduled Sunday at the Primitive Baptist Church at Dovie, officials of the congregation announces. Services will be held at 11:00 a. m. and 8:00 p. m. Sunday. The public is invited.

On Friday night before the third Sunday Elder Floyd Griffin of Oklahoma will preach. "We covet your prayers for this little band of people, declared a member of the congregation, "whether you are a Primitive Baptist or not." Elder Fred Boen is pastor of the Dovie church.

teacher, we thank you, Mr. Green, for all these things."

Mrs. Reynolds then introduced the head cheer leader of the girls' Pep Squad, Louise Lakey, who directed a series of rousing cheers by the 60-member cheering group.

Ex-Student Cliff Reynolds Jr. of the class of 1938 made a pep talk, followed by J. C. Turner Jr. A large crowd of local and out-of-townners was present for this preliminary rally.

Hundreds of exes and others streamed to the Pied Piper football stadium for the Hamlin-Winters football game at 8:00 o'clock Friday night.

Feature of the half-time events at the game was the crowning of the crowning of the Homecoming Queen, who had been selected by a committee and kept secret until a T model Ford entered the north gate carrying the Exes Queen of 1958, Mae James, who had not only attended school here but had taught in the Hamlin schools for 46 years.

A High School Queen was also selected by the Student Council by secret ballot and disclosed at the ceremonies. Four beautiful girls were brought onto the field in a beautiful modern car, being Betty Maberry, Giger Rabjohn, Judith Parker and Libby Johnson. After several anxious moments it was announced Libby Johnson was the School Queen. The queens were crowned by Ex-Student Association President L. C. Bonds.

After the game, in which Hamlin was defeated 8 to 0, a get-together for the exes was held at the beautiful new HHS gymnasium. The group was served coffee, doughnuts and cookies.

Saturday morning the ex-student group met in business session. Opening exercise consisted of a concert by the Pied Piper Band, under the direction of Mac Fullerton.

J. C. Turner Jr. presided as master of ceremonies. Following a period of solemn prayer for the deceased and ill ex-students, Gene Murff, an outstanding student of 1958-59 and member of the Student Council, gave the welcome address on behalf of the schools. Mrs. Inez Baggett Ferguson gave the response.

Formal presentation of the plaque for C. G. Green was given by Mrs. Bernice Faltrey Johnson. It was accepted by Tate May, long time friend of the pioneer superintendent. Mrs. Johnson paid tribute to Mr. Green and again told of his efforts and work that had made a good school today.

Recognition of various classes of the past was then made. The older classes showed the greatest percentage present.

Special gifts were then presented to the couple of exes who had been married the longest and those with the most children. The first went to Mr. and Mrs. John Howard Sr., who has been married for 41 years. The other gift went to Mr. and Mrs. Lesley Shelburne, who have seven children. Recognition went to the largest family of blood relations attending the homecoming — the Ralph Riddle family, with six members present.

Ex-student coming the farthest distance was Cliff Bozeman of Detroit, Michigan, who came 1,450 miles. Runner-up was Dr. Robert Johnson.

Following the election of officers, the meeting was turned over to new President Arlie Cassle, who made comment on the past meeting and welcomed all exes present. He then closed the business session.

The homecoming was climaxed with the annual barbecue Saturday at noon. Some 610 plates were served to the crowds of exes and others. Most business houses of the town were closed from 12:00 to 1:30 o'clock for the barbecue.

Al Hedison Stars In "The Fly" Film Slated at Ferguson

One of Hollywood's most promising new stars, Al Hedison, is glad today his profession at Brown University was wrong when he once advised him: "Young man, you are a dreamer. Forget the stage. Go find a trade."

Al at first took the well intentioned advice and tried his hand at a number of odd jobs. But the stage he wanted and, eventually, the stage he got.

Currently starred with Patricia Owens, Vincent Price and Herbert Marshall in "Twentieth Century-Fox's shock thriller, 'The Fly,' playing Sunday, Monday and Tuesday at the Ferguson Theater. Al's dream was paid off, in a way. In fact, he plays a dreamer in his current starring role.

As an energetic young scientist he dreams up an invention he hopes will revolutionize humanity. It's a machine which breaks down all matter into its atomic components and transfers it to another geographical location where it is automatically reassembled into its original state. The idea proves highly successful at first until he attempts the experiment on himself. As he enters the "transfer booth" he is unaware of a co-occupant—a tiny, innocent fly. As a result of this visitor's presence the machine goes amuck with the horrifying result that Hedison emerges with the giant head and arm of a fly.

To hear Al tell it, they picked the right "inventor" to play the role. After all, "what name could

This chorus, which includes 60 mixed voices selected from the student body of over 2,000, has been selected to appear at the State Fair in special renditions. Only two such groups have been invited from over the state.

Marilyn has been with the group for some time and has made several trips over the state. Rodney, a junior Bible major, was selected this year and will be making his first trip when the group goes to Dallas. Other trips are planned for the fall season when the choir goes on its annual tour.

Pontiac Features Many New Styles In Cars for 1959

"Pontiac has broken all bonds of traditional styling and engineering in 1959 with the most progressive change in our division's 51-year history," S. E. Knudsen, GM vice president and general manager of Pontiac Motor Division, said in announcing the company's new line of cars, which went on display over the nation this week. In Hamlin Jay Implement Company is showing the new models.

"We are confident that the public will hail the 1959 Pontiac as one of America's really new cars," said Knudsen. "From every angle the car reflects ultra modern design. Unprecedented styling innovations, resulting in a lower, wider car, give the 1959 Pontiac a dramatically new appearance."

An all new body, a tread nearly five inches wider to increase handling ease and safety, a new high performance 389-cubic-inch Tempest 420 V-8 engine; new, heavier, true contour brakes; and a completely redesigned chassis frame are among the 65 brand new features.

Front to rear, inside and out, the 1959 Pontiac presents a pleasing picture of artistry in modern design, with flat surfaces and intriguing angles of simplicity and beauty. The low, cleanly styled body, topped by a slim-line roof, gives up to 37 per cent greater glass area. Beautifully contoured vista-panoramic windshields in all models provide added driving safety with up to 60 per cent greater visibility. Along with its look of absolute simplicity Pontiac conveys the impression of eager action even when not in motion.

Pontiac offers 14 spectacular models in three series: Four Bonneville, three Star Chief and seven in the new Catalina series. Brilliant and durable magic mirror acrylic lacquer paint finishes, introduced by Pontiac as standard on some models in 1956, will be standard on all models.

Being a columnist in which the publisher just "blows off the steam."

October gave a party:
The leaves of hundreds came—
The Chestnuts, Oaks and Maples,
And leaves of every name.
The Sunshine spread a carpet,
And everything was grand,
Miss Weather led the dancing,
Professor Wind the band.

The Chestnuts came in yellow,
The Oaks in crimson dressed;
The lovely Misses Maple
In scarlet looked their best;
All balanced to their partners,
And gaily fluttered by;
The sight was like a rainbow
New fallen from the sky.

Then, in the rustic hollow,
At hide-and-seek they played.
The party closed at sundown,
And everybody stayed.
Professor Wind played louder;
They flew along the ground;
And then the party ended
In jolly "hoops around."

OVER AT ANSON the other day, comes an unconfirmed story to The Herald, a fellow was charged in court for burglarizing a dress shop.

"What I don't understand," said the judge, "is why you broke into that dress shop three times in one night. What did you steal?"

"Just a dress for my wife, your honor," replied the defendant, but she made me change it twice."

TESTIFYING in court the other day over at Anson the plaintiff who was suing the railroad braced himself stiffly in the witness box as the defense counsel started cross examination.

"You say you were hurt in the accident?" the attorney asked.

"That's right," the witness replied.

"Then, at the time of the accident, when you were asked if you were injured," pursued the attorney, "why did you say that you weren't?"

The witness shuffled his feet.

"It's like this," he said. "Me and my horse and wagon, we didn't see no train coming so we started across the tracks. Next thing you know there's this train and we're knocked into the ditch. You never saw such a mess. I'm flat on my back with my feet up in the air, my horse is the same way, and the wagon is upside down."

Interrupted the lawyer: "But when the engineer asked you how you were, you said 'okay'."

"First things first," replied the witness. "The engineer comes over and sees the horse's leg is broken, so he goes and gets a gun and shoots the horse. And then he comes over to me, gun in hand, and asks if I'm hurt. Sure, I told him I was okay."

THE TRAFFIC COP was a little mispirt the other day when he faced the motorist whom he had arrested on the Hamlin-Aspermont highway.

Taking out his notebook and a pencil, he asked: "What's your name?"

The speeding motorist replied: "Aloysius Alsallat Chysianczjathas."

After sputtering a little, the traffic policeman started putting away his traffic ticket book and said: "Don't let me catch you speeding again."

THE LITTLE Hamlin girl evidently had become bored by her enforced practices and urgings by her doting parents to become a talented musician.

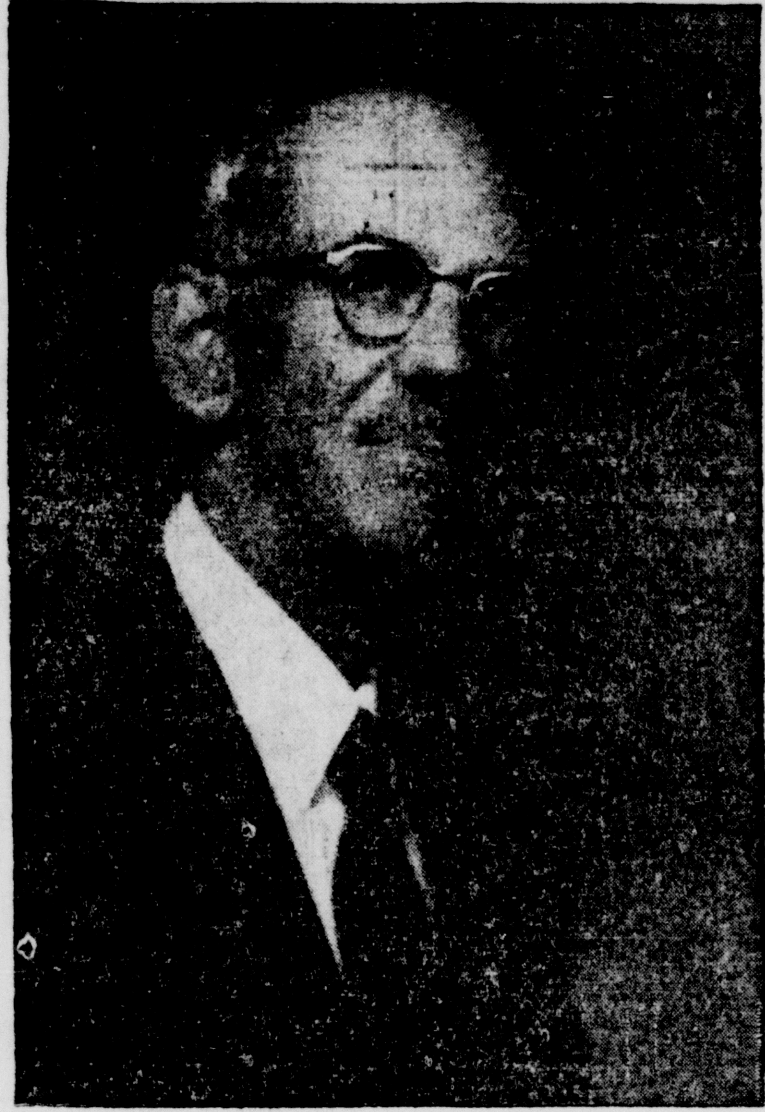

The teacher was trying to make Elsie understand subtraction and said: "You have 10 fingers; now supposing there were three missing—what would you have left?"

"No music lessons," said Elsie promptly.

MODERN SONGS are a far cry from most of those on which we grew up. In other days they were soft and swiny, soothing and liting, romantic and even made sense.

Aspermont Truck Driver Dies Here After Car Accident

Joe Waylon Burleson, 19-year-old Aspermont truck driver, died early Saturday morning in Hamlin Memorial Hospital of injuries sustained when the pick-up truck in which he was a passenger overturned about 2:30 a. m. Saturday at Aspermont.

Paul Brockman, 17, of Aspermont, driver of the 1957 Ford pick-up truck, was in fair condition at Hendrick Memorial Hospital at Abilene first of the week. He suffered a broken back.

Two other passengers in the truck, H. Eld Boatman, about 25, of Peacock, and Corky Childress, about 28, of Peacock, were not injured seriously.

Sheriff Charles L. Gibson of Aspermont said Burleson and Brockman were thrown from the pick-up when it overturned. He said the pick-up, apparently skidded on gravel as it turned the corner on a gravel street.

Funeral for Burleson was held Sunday at the First Baptist Church in Rochester. Rev. Mark Hardis, pastor of the First Baptist Church in O'Brien, officiated. Burial was in Rochester Cemetery under direction of Mansell-Smith Funeral Home of Rochester.

Survivors are his parents, two sisters, and his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Jacobs of Rochester.

Damp Weather Damages Quality And Lint Yields

Cotton was moving to the gins in the Hamlin territory at an increased tempo this week with the advent of some needed warmer and dryer days, following several weeks of misty, rainy and cool days, to give the farmers of the region a chance to get into the cotton fields in real earnest.

The inclement weather of the past several weeks had not only practically brought to a standstill the cotton harvest, but had slowed ripening of the cotton bolls and done material damage to the cotton on the stalks that was ready for harvest. The lint was stained by prolonged wet weather, hurting the looks of the staple and otherwise deteriorating the crop to the amount of thousands of dollars.

Three weeks ago County Agent Kirby Clayton had estimated that the county would harvest more than 55,000 bales. He still is contending the crop will near that figure, although the value of the crop will be down much from early estimates. He points out that most of the cotton in the county is in better shape than in the immediate Hamlin territory, where mid-summer rains were few and inadequate.

Much of the cotton crop in the region will be defoliated and gathered by mechanical pickers and strippers inasmuch as harvest has been delayed.

Bids Called For on New Mail Routing

Call for bids for carrying the mail from Abilene to towns and cities along the route of the Santa Fe "doodle-bug" train that has been carrying mail for many years this week portends the abandonment by the post office department of the Santa Fe line.

Post office and railroad officials have been talking about discontinuing the train for several months. The railroad made application for hearing on the discontinuance to the Texas Railroad Commission several weeks ago, but the hearing has not been held.

The train, which has been operating for years from San Angelo into Kansas, already has been abandoned from San Angelo to Sweetwater and in Kansas and Oklahoma.

Projected route of the star mail route is to leave Abilene at 2:00 a. m. (or as late as 6:00 a. m. in case of late trains from the east) going by way of Stamford, Sagerston, Old Glory, Rule, Rochester, O'Brien, Knox City, Benjamin, Truscott and Crowell to Quanah, a total of 148.10 miles, and return. On Sunday the routes will go only to Truscott.

Call for bids asked for tentative contracts to be dated November 1. Hamlin at present has a star route to Anson. Under the new arrangement mail for Hamlin will probably be picked up at Stamford, according to Perry Sparks, Hamlin postmaster.

Following the business meeting a luncheon will be served to the attendees. It is expected.

Cattle Prices Uneven, But New Rises Registered in Hog Markets for Week

Cattle prices were uneven, hogs showed the first strength in more than a week, and sheep and goats were steady at Fort Worth Monday, declares Ed Gouldy, special market reporter for The Herald. In his weekly market summary. The summary continues:

Offerings of cattle and calves were nearly 10,000 below a week earlier around the major market circle. Hogs at 12 major markets were 16,000 below a week earlier. Sheep numbers were up 2,500 around the circuit.

Cattle and calves were slow. The receipts included a big percentage of mixed grade and classes and one factor in the slow movement early in the day was the extensive sorting that was necessary.

Fed heaves were scarce and about steady. Cows faced lower offers from slaughter interests from the opening gong and averaged 25 to mostly 50 cents lower by the time a clearance was completed. Bulls were steady.

Slaughter classes ruled steady.

Stocker and feeder classes were unevenly fully steady to somewhat lower. There was very strong demand from farmers of the area on types suitable for winter pasture operations, but buyers with Northern connections were talking lower prices following the $1 lower close in the North late last week. High grade stockers were relatively scarce.

Good and choice slaughter yearlings and steers cashed at $24 to $28, the higher figure for some baby beef type heavy calves of light yearling weights. Medium and lower grades sold from $23.50 down.

Fat cows sold mostly from $18.50 to $22, and canners and cutters drew $14 to $19. Bulls sold from $18 to $22.75.

Good and choice slaughter calves sold mostly from $24 to $28, with a few heavies higher. Cull, common and medium calves sold from $16 to $24.

Good to choice stocker calves cashed at $29 to $33, and heifer calves ranged from $30 downward. Stocker steer yearlings sold from $31.50 downward, with heavier yearlings $27.50 downward. Stocker cows sold from $18 to $21.50. Some weighty feeder steers sold from $22 to $25.50.

Last week hog prices took a drubbing all over the country, and as they dropped from the $22 range to the $20 range, they lost a total of $2 to $2.50 in just three days of last week. However, at Fort Worth Monday the trend was up for the first time in more than a week.

Butcher hogs were 50 cents higher, and packing hogs were 50 cents or more higher Monday. Choice butcher hogs cashed at $20 to $20.25. Medium to good butcher hogs sold at $18.50 to $19.85. Sows were reported from $18 to $19.50. Boars drew $8 to $9. Stags cashed at $12 to $15.

Sheep and lambs were steady at Fort Worth Monday. Medium to good slaughter lambs sold from $20 to $22, some shorn lambs with No. 1 pelt and some woolled lambs at the top of $22. Good slaughter yearling wethers cashed at $18 to $20. Slaughter ewes sold from $7.50 to $8. A few nanny goats sold at $7.50. Stocker and feeder lambs cashed at $18 to $21.75.

Texas is regarded as one of the most fertile fields in America for archeological research.

BUSINESS IMPROVEMENT SEEN IN U. S. FUTURE

"Rolling readjustment," "bottoming out," "sideways movement"—expressions like these have been frequently in the news this year. Sometimes contradictory, often confusing, they reflect the complicated movements of the nation's economy.

Fortunately, signs of business improvement have become more numerous in the last few months. It may still be too early to say that our economic machine is shifting into high gear. But there are solid reasons for believing that we are moving forward again.

When we look a little way down the road, moreover, the prospect is brighter than any we have yet seen. Let's look, for example, at 1965, the year when children now in the first grade will be entering high school. Reliable estimates show that by that time, there will be 18,000,000 more people living in this country than there are today.

Now that fact alone may not seem like a reason for throwing our hats in the air. After all, China and India have much higher populations than ours. But such countries have neither the competitive economic system nor the resultant productive capacity that we do. Here, we have solved the age-old problem of how to feed millions of mouths—and feed them well. To our economy, an increase in population is not an added burden. It means an increase in demand—an opportunity to use our skills and our industrial potential to create more jobs and produce more goods.

These things will not, of course, happen by themselves. Somebody has to plan for them, and prepare for them, and find the capital to make them come about. For example, one industry alone, the oil industry, will have to make capital expenditures of many billions of dollars to meet the needs of our growing country.

From October 12 to 18, when that industry will be celebrating its annual Oil Progress Week, oil company people will be calling our attention to the vast opportunities that lie down the road. With the theme "Today—Oil Builds for Your Tomorrow," they will be telling us about the job that their industry must do to enable the nation to make the most of future opportunities. It's an inspiring and encouraging story to be telling right now. We'll be listening to it with a great deal of interest in the Hamlin community, which owes much of its fine economy to the oil industry.

The Free Man

A man's master is he who is capable of giving or taking away whatever that man wants or avoids. The truly free man must, therefore, desire nothing which depends upon the whim or caprices of others, but must necessarily stand on his own two feet. Otherwise, he is not completely free.

When you take for your own only that which is your own, and consider what belongs to others as not yours, then nobody can ever enslave your spirit or restrict your thoughts. You will accept others for what they are, and they will accept you for what you are—a free man.

It is not practical in society to subscribe to this principle in every detail, but if you will face your future with the thought that you will observe this rule to the greatest possible degree, you will be able to live independently, humanely and serenely.—Ascribed to Epictetus, about 100 A. D.

Admitting Our Errors

How hard it is to confess that we have spoken without thinking, that we have talked nonsense. How many a man says a thing in haste and heat, without fully understanding or half meaning it, and then, because he has said it, holds fast to it and tries to defend it as if it were true!

How much wiser, how much more admirable and attractive it is when a man has the grace to perceive and acknowledge his mistakes! It gives us assurance that he is capable of learning, of growing, of improving, so that his future will be better than his past.—Henry Van Dyke.

Nuggets of Thought

If you lend a friend five dollars and never see him again, it's worth it.—Fred Espinosa.

Instead of loving your enemies, treat your friends a little better.—Ed Howe.

The comfort of having a friend may be taken away, but not that of having had one.—Seneca.

Who seeks a friend without a fault remains without one.—Turkish Proverb.

It is noble to have a friend, but nobler still to be one.—Richard Wagner.

Our friends see the best in us, and by that very fact call forth the best from us.—Black.

Every man should keep a fair sized cemetery in which to bury the faults of his friends.—Henry Ward Beecher.

The degree of vision that dwells in a man is a correct measure of the man.—Thomas Car-

Profiting by Mistakes

I don't believe anyone can enjoy living in this world unless he can accept its imperfection. He must know and admit that he is imperfect, that all other mortals are imperfect, that it is childish to allow these imperfections to destroy all his hope and all his desire to live.

Nature is older than man, and she is still far from perfect. Her summers do not always start promptly on June 21. Her bugs and beetles and other insects often go beyond her obvious intentions, devouring the leaves and buds with which she has adorned her countryside. After the land has remained too dry for too long she sends relieving rains. But frequently they come in torrents so violent that they do more harm than good. Over the years, however, nature keeps going on in her imperfect way and the result, in spite of the many mistakes, is a continuing miracle.

It would be folly for an individual to seek to do better than go on in his own imperfect way, making his mistakes, and riding out the rough and bewildering, exciting and beautiful storm of life until the day he dies.—Oscar Hammerstein II.

Editorial of the Week

WHEN AMERICA GREW

Governments at every level this year will take 30 per cent of the national income—the federal government alone collecting nearly $80,000,000,000 in taxes.

There's an interesting historical parallel. In 1800, right after adoption of the U. S. constitution, governments at every level took 10 per cent of the national income in taxes.

In 1925, a century and a quarter later, government consumed only eight per cent of the national income. In that 125 years, America made its greatest gains in history. National wealth jumped from $2,500,000,000 to over $307,000,000,000; population went up from 5,500,000 to 116,000,000; output per worker increased from 10 cents to $1.30 an hour in value.

All those gains were made while governments actually reduced from 10 to eight per cent the amount of taxes as related to national income.

In those 125 years it was proved that Washington did not have to prime the pump to assure jobs and family incomes. Business and industry were left alone to expand and invest in the future, free of unnecessary regulation.

To repeat—taxes today are 30 per cent of the national income, as compared with eight to 10 when this country made its phenomenal

Fires Costly to All. Firemen Declare At Lions Luncheon

Fires cost every person in the United States on the average of more than $6 each year, according to information given by Lester Minton, member of the Hamlin Volunteer Fire Department, who directed a program for Fire Prevention Week at the Tuesday noon luncheon of Hamlin Lions Club at the oil mill guest house.

Minton also gave further statistics on the cost of fire, declaring that more than 11,000 persons die in flames every year. He said that smoking, electrical circuits and spontaneous combustion account for most of the fires, a great percentage of which could be avoided by proper precaution.

Two films, pointing to good fire prevention practices, were shown, entitled "What To Do Till the Fire Department Arrives" and "Stop the Fires Before They Start." The films revealed that carelessness, indifference and ignorance are responsible for many of the fires in our country.

Fire Chief James D. Josey announced that open house would be staged Saturday afternoon by the Hamlin Volunteer Fire Department at the fire station, when equipment and fire fighting methods will be shown.

Cotton Defoliation Pays Dividends in West Texas Area

Cotton defoliation has paid big dividends to West Texas farmers in the past few years, according to County Agent Kirby Clayton. Reports that it cost about a bale to hand pull a bale of cotton, whereas the same bale of cotton machine stripped for only a bale and the grade is the same in either case.

In this area Clayton recommends two to three quarts of dichlorophenol mixed with four to one-half gallons of diesel fuel per acre on cotton 24 inches tall or smaller, using three T-jet X-2 nozzles per row. On larger cotton, 24 inches tall or larger, Clayton recommends two to three quarts of pentachlorophenol mixed with seven gallons of diesel or kerosene per acre, using five T-jet X2 nozzles per row. Tractors should run at four miles an hour with 10 pounds of pressure for best results.

Pentachlorophenol is recommended for use only when cotton is 60 per cent open and all remaining bolls are mature.

The Texas A. & M. Bulletin on cotton defoliation is now available in the county agent's office for those who call for it.

EGGTOBER SLATED

October has been tabbed as "Eggtober" by planners of a stepped-up promotion for eggs during the month. ### WE KNEW HIM WHEN

An ambitious young garage owner was determined to become a success and worked all kinds of schemes. On reaching the age of 43 he suddenly died. When he reached the gates of heaven, there was St. Peter to conduct the necessary entrance formalities.

When the garage man had filled in the forms, St. Peter commented on his age and remarked it was unusual to call someone so young. He checked the files and then turned to the man:

"I'm afraid you're wrong—you are much older, and according to the working hours you charged your customers you're at least 127."

Last Special Sale For Season Slated Soon at Fort Worth

Final special show and sale of stocker and feeder calves and yearlings at the Fort Worth stockyards takes place Thursday and Friday, October 9 and 10, points out Ted Gouldy, special market reporter for The Herald. In his weekly market summary, he continues: It will be an all-breed affair each day. Early entries passed the 1,000 mark last week, indicating a good offering of the premiums and top sale prices.

The sale is sponsored by the Fort Worth Market Institute, and Manager Ted Gouldy announced Monday that inquiry for stockers and feeders at the market continues of almost unprecedented proportions. "Some step-up in Northern demand was reported at Corn Belt terminals late last week," Gouldy reported, "but with good winter grazing and big feed supplies, the Southwestern demand continues flat at strong prices. In the trade Monday the scores of farmers and ranchers in the alleys seeking stockers enabled salesmen to sell cattle at strong prices regardless of Northern views as to the values of replacement calves or yearlings."

Special prizes will be awarded each day to consignors whose cattle place as high as fifth in the judging. Judging starts at 7:00 a. m. and selling at 9:00 a. m. each day.

The special Thursday-Friday double-header sales were originated by the Market Institute four years ago and have been hailed by cattle producers as a new method of getting buyers and sellers together to the mutual advantage of both.

Certified Seed Worth Extra Cost, Advises Planting Specialist

If you buy small grain seed, don't let the small extra cost stop you from buying certified seed, advises County Agent Kirby Clayton.

Lee Coffey, in charge of the foundation seed program at Texas A. & M. College, says you can save your own planting seed of good varieties; however, there is always the danger of mechanical mixing in the combine or drill. So the rule Coffey suggests to follow is: When you buy small grain seed buy certified seed.

That small extra cost is good insurance of the origin of the seed that they have been inspected by the State Department of Agriculture and that they are the variety you want. Another advantage, certified seed must come up to high germination standards as well as be free of weeds and disease. So examine the tag on the seed you buy, and if you buy seed, buy certified seed.

WANT CASH?

We pay cash for Dry Blackeyes, New Erbs, and other Cowpeas, Pinto Beans, Mung Beans, Grass Seeds, other seed.

Boy Scout Work Is Worthy

The annual financial drive for the Boy Scout work in the Hamlin community is underway this week under the direction of Weldon Johnson and B. V. Newberry. Southwestern Bell Telephone Company, as in the years past, is happy to have a part in this worthy project. We bespeak the hearty cooperation of the people of the community in this campaign to raise funds to carry on the work during the coming year.

There is no way to estimate the value of this character building and citizenship teaching work among the boys of our land. Hamlin area boys have been active in Cub Scout, Boy Scout and Explorer Scout work, around 100 boys of the area now being enrolled in the three Scout branches.

The Child Will Be Frank

Louise Proctor's twenty-fifth service anniversary was celebrated with a punch and cake party recently. Among those who attended was Pam Richey, the six-year-old daughter of Dorothy Richey, one of our former Hamlin operators. Before the cake was served, I noticed little Pam staring very hard at the punch bowl, which was filled with foamy raspberry punch. Finally she couldn't hold her question any longer, and she looked at Jo Riddle, combination clerk, and asked, "Jo, are we going to have to drink that bubble bath?"

Luxurious—But Not a Luxury

Got a telephone for your bedroom, yet? Nothing tops a bedroom telephone for real luxury living. When I'm home using ours, I like to stretch out on the bed with the phone cradled between my shoulder and my ear. I can relax and really talk that way.

There are plenty of good, practical reasons for having a bedroom phone, too. Privacy, for example. And women often say how reassuring it is to have a phone at their bedside when they're alone in the house at night. It's much nicer to be able to "reach" to answer instead of having to dash to another room.

Here in Hamlin, a bedroom extension costs only $1.00 a month plus installation. And for a one-time charge of only $10 you can have your choice of any of the nine beautiful color telephones. They're especially smart for bedrooms.

Easy Way to Keep in Touch

I guess at one time or another, we all remember—out of a clear sky—someone we haven't thought of in a long time. "Whatever happened to George?" we say. Or to Ruth, or the Browns, or the Martin family. Usually it's someone we really mean to keep in touch with—like the couple who used to live next door, or old friends in far-away places. But with so much on our minds and so much to do, the months fly by and we never get around to it.

The quick, easy way to make up for lost time is, of course, to use your telephone.

A long distance phone call is the personal, thoughtful way of keeping in touch with those you care about. Try a call tonight, and you'll see what I mean.

Call by number. It's twice as fast.

Gridders Go to Childress for Last Non-Conference Game

Pied Pipers Hope To Fatten Record In First Meeting

Hamlin High School footballers will make their longest trek of the season for a game tomorrow (Friday) when they go to Childress to meet the Bobcats on their own gridiron. Game time is 8:00 o'clock.

Playing Childress for the first time in many years, the Pied Pipers are hoped to take the tilt in view of the Bobcats' performance so far. Childress has lost four of their five games this season. Panhandle bounced the Bobcats 27 to 0 in the first game. Childress hopped Panhandle 14 to 12, then lost three in a row—losing to Vernon 40 to 0, to Burk Burnett 52 to 22, and to Seymour 43 to 18.

With a three won, two lost record so far, the Pied Pipers hope to improve their percentage before getting down to cases with four conference games after the Childress bout.

Besides the team and a host of home-town fans, Hamlin will take the 60-piece Pied Piper Band and the 70-girl Pep Squad to the Childress fracas, school authorities announced this week.

Pied Pipers Drop Homecoming Tilt Winters by 8 to 0

Capitalizing on chances for a quick score on the first kick-off in last Friday night's non-conference football game against the Hamlin Pied Pipers, the Winters gridders went on to score early in the period and mark up an 8 to 0 victory over the locals before a giant homecoming crowd at the Hamlin stadium.

The victory caused the locals' season record to drop to three wins and two losses. It was the Blizzards' second win out of four games played so far.

Winters took the opening kick-off and marched behind Left Half Jimmy Largent and Fullback Charles Curry to the one-yard spot, where Jerry Dunnam carried over. Joel Butts ran over the two extra points.

Hamlin drove inside the Winters 20-yard stripe only once during the game. A Winters touchdown was called back late in the fourth quarter.

The game was a hard fought one, Winters racking up 203 yards to 196 yards for the Pied Pipers. However, the Blizzards made 15 first downs to only five for the local crew.

The Pied Pipers had two first string players out of the tilt because of injuries and illness, and two others played despite their injuries.

Going Gets Rough for District 6-AA Teams, But Gridders Hold Percentage

The going seems to be getting harder for teams of the District 6-AA football loop. Last weekend, as the squads engaged in their fifth week of non-conference play, the teams won two, tied one and lost two games to merely hold their own in the percentage column for the year.

Stamford's Bulldogs continued their display of strength by downing the strong unbeaten Brady Bulldogs 14 to 6; Seymour rolled up Childress 43 to 18; Haskell tied a strong Coleman crew 14 to 14; Anson lost to the Class A Merkel Badgers 28 to 26; and Hamlin dropped its homecoming tilt to the Winters Blizzards 8 to 0.

Haskell High School's Indians, beaten once this season so far, had a tough session with the District 6-AA Coleman squad. Although the Indians looked better statistically, the score ended in a 14 to 14 tie. Haskell made 17 first downs to 11 for Coleman, and ran up 193 yards rushing to 168 for the Coleman aggregation. However, Coleman had the edge in the passing department, making 95 yards on four of nine tosses while Haskell made 66 yards by completing 8 of 21 passes. Both teams scored in the last quarter. Haskell led at the half 8 to 6.

Seymour's Panthers, last year's district champions, showed their teeth after their previous week's 25 to 6 loss to Electra by sweeping the Childress Bobcats off their feet 43 to 18 Friday night on the Seymour griddle. Billy Carlock scored three Seymour touchdowns on runs of four, 30 and six yards; Travis Clark passed to Jerry Underwood for 21 yards and a score and ran another over from the 15; and Eldon Welch went seven yards for a marker. Welch also kicked three extra points, and Carlock ran over for two. Ray Kelly, Childress quarterback, went five, eight and seven yards for the losers' touchdowns. Tries for the extra points failed.

Stamford's Bulldogs, hoped to take the district title this season, continued to prove contentions by trouncing a strong Brady Bulldog crew 14 to 6 in a melee played at Stamford. Guard Ray Sconce of Stamford took a blocked punt in the first quarter and raced 30 yards for a touchdown. The boys went 70 yards on another series of plays for the second marker in the third period. Quarterback Fred Uphaw tossing to Duane Lindsey and 12 yards for the marker. In the second quarter Royce Blackburn went across for the Brady touchdown. Stamford made 15 first downs to seven for Brady, and rolled up 176 yards rushing to 57 for the Brady squad.

Capitalizing on the first quarter kick-off, the Winters Blizzards took an 8 to 0 decision over the Hamlin Pied Pipers before a big homecoming crowd of exes. Left Halfback Jimmy Largent and Fullback Charles Curry led the drive downfield, and Jerry Dunnam put the oval over the goal line from the one-yard spot. Joel Butts ran over the extra points. Playing was about even in the tilt, but

Rodents Continue to Plague Community

Rats and mice continue to be around in big numbers, according to residents of the Hamlin community. In fact, the infestation seems to be pretty universal all over the Southwest.

Thousands of the rats and mice have been poisoned and trapped by area residents—but still they show up.

The Hamlin Board of Community Development office still has a supply of the poisoned bait that is being given to residents of the territory free.

MATTER OF RESPECT

The grandfather of the chief had the misfortune to be eaten by a warrior from a neighboring tribe. In due time the warrior was captured and brought before the chief. The medicine man suggested that the cannibal be executed.

"No," said the chief. "Should I disturb my grandfather's grave?"

Winters made 15 first downs to five for the Pipers.

Anson Tigers and the Merkel Class A Badgers engaged in a hard fought battle Friday night on the Merkel grounds which the Badgers took 28 to 26. Hamlin, incidentally, earlier in the season had clipped Merkel 24 to 14, giving the dopsters a comparison of the Anson and Hamlin crews. The Merkel squad rolled up 244 yards on the ground to only 54 yards for the Tigers, and amassed 18 first downs to Anson's eight. Scoring for Merkel were Joe Nell, Jerry McLeod, Manley Denton and Tokyo Moreno. Tallying for the Anson gang were Bennie Cox, Ronnie Ryan and Pat Patterson.

Grid Game Receipts At Schools Hit $2,219

Receipts from football games played at Hamlin this season have been good, a tabulation of the records this week by school officials reveals.

By games the receipts and Hamlin's part have been as follows: Eastland $781, Hamlin's part $337; Spur $710, Hamlin's part $303.63; Merkel $840.50, Hamlin's part $363.45; Rotan $788, Hamlin's part $337.50; Winters $1,063.50, Hamlin's part $476.30; reserved seat seats, $182; B team receipts, $101.25; grade school receipts, $105. Total receipts by the Hamlin athletic department have been $2,219.45.

Seventh Graders to Play Two with Anson

Seventh grade gridders from Hamlin Junior High School will play the Anson seventh graders two games, according to Harry Martin, Hamlin coach. The games will be played on Saturday morning at 9:00 o'clock.

The first game will be played at Anson next Saturday, October 11, and the game at Hamlin will be played on November 1.

Anson Juniors Beat Mighty Mice 18 to 6 In Tuesday Night Tilt

Anson Junior High School Cubs used a fine passing combination from Quarterback John Sanders to Halfback Jerry Pearce for two first period touchdowns and set up a third touchdown to take a half-time 18 to 0 lead in their tilt last Tuesday night with the Hamlin Mighty Mice. The final score was 18 to 6.

Hamlin's gridders took the second half kick-off and marched for their only touchdown. Moving the ball were Mike Martin, Dan Newberry, Larry Blackwell, Van Newberry, Raymond Renfro and Anthony Woolf. The Hamlin boys shook loose for some nice gains in the last quarter, but were stopped by two clipping penalties. O. H. Weaver played a good game at tackle while Floyd Woolf did a good job at end.

Hamlin's touchdown was scored by Mike Martin on a short plunge over guard.

Mexican Baptist Church Observes Birthday Sunday

Mexican Baptist Mission of the Baptist Church Sunday afternoon opened open house to the church in North Hamlin in commemoration of the anniversary of the establishment of the church. Scores of people visited the church and were served refreshments by members of the congregation and the pastor, Rev. Rector Ortiz.

The mission was established in October, 1950, as a mission of the First Baptist Church during the ministry of Rev. A. R. Posey. Rev. Ortiz, then a student at Hardin-Simmons University at Abilene, was the first pastor. In 1953 he went to the Golden Gate Seminary in California returning in 1954.

Starting with a Sunday School attendance of three, the mission now has around 75 each Sunday and has a membership of about 50. Elizio Martinez is Training Union director; Manuela Ortiz is Woman's Missionary Society president; Manuel Perez is Sunday School superintendent; and Mrs. Joe Simpson is Sunday School secretary.

Owning its own building, the church now has $1,400 in the bank, Rev. Ortiz reports.

bed in Abilene, the grand old school man heard indirectly of the dedication through a friend, Tate May, who carried a special plaque to his bed Saturday morning. The dedication stated:

"We, the officers and members of the Ex-Students Association, do hereby dedicate this, the 1958 homecoming to C. G. Green, a beloved superintendent of Hamlin schools from 1924 to 1939.

"We honor Mr. Green in this small way and pay our respects to him for the many years of diligent service he gave to those of us who did then and do now enjoy the fruits of his labor. To the man who stood for good living, good learning and who expected the best from each pupil and

Many Use Downtown Exes Headquarters

Scores of Hamlin High School ex-students used the downtown headquarters for last week-end's homecoming sponsored by the Hamlin Business and Professional Woman's Club.

The B&PW Club wants to publicly thank the City of Hamlin, Banner Ice Company and the West Texas Utilities Company for furnishing the water, building and lights for the hospitality house.

Primitive Baptists Set Services at Dovie

Services are scheduled Sunday at the Primitive Baptist Church at Dovie, officials of the congregation announces. Services will be held at 11:00 a. m. and 8:00 p. m. Sunday. The public is invited.

On Friday night before the third Sunday Elder Floyd Griffin of Oklahoma will preach. "We covet your prayers for this little band of people, declared a member of the congregation, "whether you are a Primitive Baptist or not." Elder Fred Boen is pastor of the Dovie church.

teacher, we thank you, Mr. Green, for all these things."

Mrs. Reynolds then introduced the head cheer leader of the girls' Pep Squad, Louise Lakey, who directed a series of rousing cheers by the 60-member cheering group.

Ex-Student Cliff Reynolds Jr. of the class of 1938 made a pep talk, followed by J. C. Turner Jr. A large crowd of local and out-of-townners was present for this preliminary rally.

Hundreds of exes and others streamed to the Pied Piper football stadium for the Hamlin-Winters football game at 8:00 o'clock Friday night.

Feature of the half-time events at the game was the crowning of the crowning of the Homecoming Queen, who had been selected by a committee and kept secret until a T model Ford entered the north gate carrying the Exes Queen of 1958, Mae James, who had not only attended school here but had taught in the Hamlin schools for 46 years.

A High School Queen was also selected by the Student Council by secret ballot and disclosed at the ceremonies. Four beautiful girls were brought onto the field in a beautiful modern car, being Betty Maberry, Giger Rabjohn, Judith Parker and Libby Johnson. After several anxious moments it was announced Libby Johnson was the School Queen. The queens were crowned by Ex-Student Association President L. C. Bonds.

After the game, in which Hamlin was defeated 8 to 0, a get-together for the exes was held at the beautiful new HHS gymnasium. The group was served coffee, doughnuts and cookies.

Saturday morning the ex-student group met in business session. Opening exercise consisted of a concert by the Pied Piper Band, under the direction of Mac Fullerton.

J. C. Turner Jr. presided as master of ceremonies. Following a period of solemn prayer for the deceased and ill ex-students, Gene Murff, an outstanding student of 1958-59 and member of the Student Council, gave the welcome address on behalf of the schools. Mrs. Inez Baggett Ferguson gave the response.

Formal presentation of the plaque for C. G. Green was given by Mrs. Bernice Fairley Johnson. It was accepted by Tate May, long time friend of the pioneer superintendent. Mrs. Johnson paid tribute to Mr. Green and again told of his efforts and work that had made a good school today.

Recognition of various classes of the past was then made. The older classes showed the greatest percentage present.

Special gifts were then presented to the couple of exes who had been married the longest and those with the most children. The first went to Mr. and Mrs. John Howard Sr., who has been married for 41 years. The other gift went to Mr. and Mrs. Lesley Shelburne, who have seven children. Recognition went to the largest family of blood relations attending the homecoming — the Ralph Riddle family, with six members present.

Ex-student coming the farthest distance was Cliff Bozeman of Detroit, Michigan, who came 1,450 miles. Runner-up was Dr. Robert Johnson.

Following the election of officers, the meeting was turned over to new President Arlie Cassle, who made comment on the past meeting and welcomed all exes present. He then closed the business session.

The homecoming was climaxed with the annual barbecue Saturday at noon. Some 610 plates were served to the crowds of exes and others. Most business houses of the town were closed from 12:00 to 1:30 o'clock for the barbecue.

Al Hedison Stars In "The Fly" Film Slated at Ferguson

One of Hollywood's most promising new stars, Al Hedison, is glad today his profession at Brown University was wrong when he once advised him: "Young man, you are a dreamer. Forget the stage. Go find a trade."

Al at first took the well intentioned advice and tried his hand at a number of odd jobs. But the stage he wanted and, eventually, the stage he got.

Currently starred with Patricia Owens, Vincent Price and Herbert Marshall in "Twentieth Century-Fox's shock thriller, "The Fly," playing Sunday, Monday and Tuesday at the Ferguson Theater. Al's dreamer paid off, in a way. In fact, he plays a dreamer in his current starring role.

As an energetic young scientist he dreams up an invention he hopes will revolutionize humanity. It's a machine which breaks down all matter into its atomic components and transfers it to another geographical location where it is automatically reassembled into its original state. The idea proves highly successful at first until he attempts the experiment on himself. As he enters the "transfer booth" he is unaware of a co-occupant—a tiny, innocent fly. As a result of this visitor's presence the machine goes amuck with the horrifying result that Hedison emerges with the giant head and arm of a fly.

To hear Al tell it, they picked the right "inventor" to play the role. After all, "what name could

This chorus, which includes 60 mixed voices selected from the student body of over 2,000, has been selected to appear at the State Fair in special renditions. Only two such groups have been invited from over the state.

Marylyn has been with the group for some time and has made several trips over the state. Rodney, a junior Bible major, was selected this year and will be making his first trip when the group goes to Dallas. Other trips are planned for the fall season when the choir goes on its annual tour.

Pontiac Features Many New Styles In Cars for 1959

"Pontiac has broken all bonds of traditional styling and engineering in 1959 with the most progressive change in our division's 51-year history," S. E. Knudsen, GM vice president and general manager of Pontiac Motor Division, said in announcing the company's new line of cars, which went on display over the nation this week. In Hamlin Jay Implement Company is showing the new models.

"We are confident that the public will hail the 1959 Pontiac as one of America's really new cars," said Knudsen. "From every angle the car reflects ultra modern design. Unprecedented styling innovations, resulting in a lower, wider car, give the 1959 Pontiac a dramatically new appearance."

An all new body, a tread nearly five inches wider to increase handling ease and safety, a new high performance 389-cubic-inch Tempest 420 V-8 engine; new, heavier, true contour brakes; and a completely redesigned chassis frame are among the 65 brand new features.

Front to rear, inside and out, the 1959 Pontiac presents a pleasing picture of artistry in modern design, with flat surfaces and intriguing angles of simplicity and beauty. The low, cleanly styled body, topped by a slim-line roof, gives up to 37 per cent greater glass area. Beautifully contoured vista-panoramic windshields in all models provide added driving safety with up to 60 per cent greater visibility. Along with its look of absolute simplicity Pontiac conveys the impression of eager action even when not in motion.

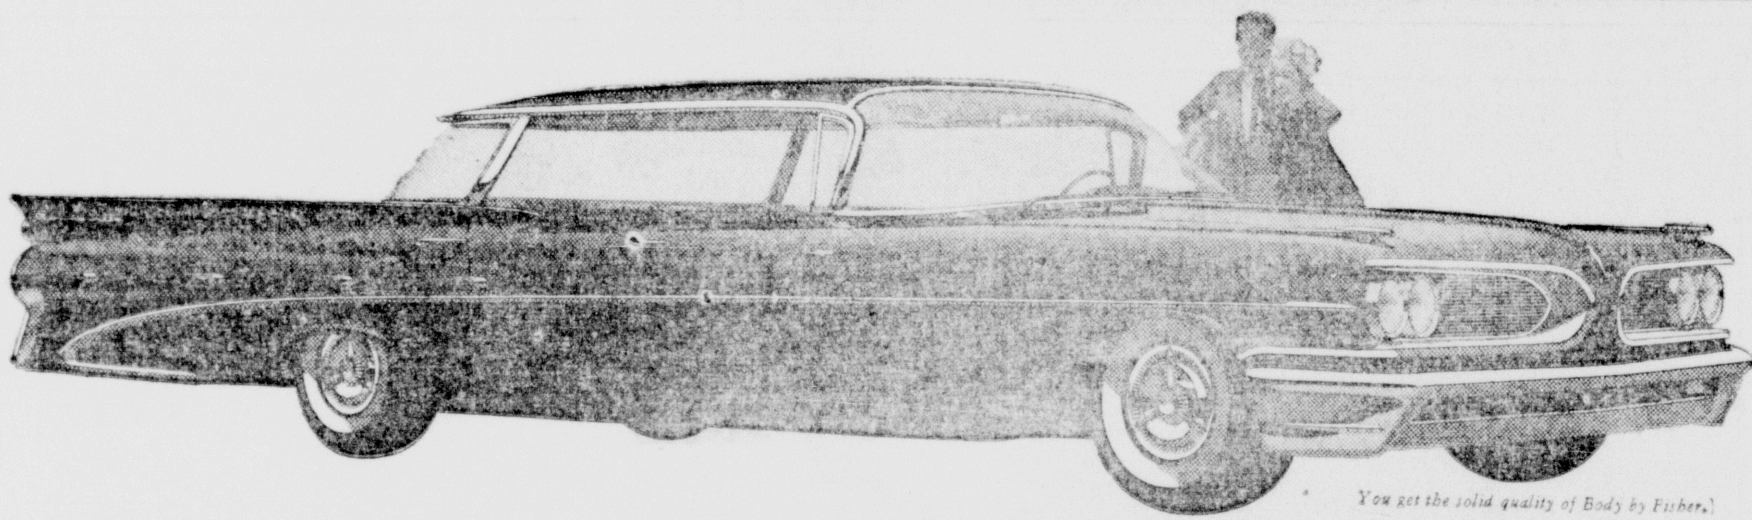

Pontiac offers 14 spectacular models in three series: Four Bonneville, three Star Chiefs and seven in the new Catalina series. Brilliant and durable magic mirror acrylic lacquer paint finishes, introduced by Pontiac as standard on some models in 1956, will be standard on all models.
